HL-L8250CDN
Color Laser Printer with Duplex and Networking

Small and medium-sized businesses looking for a color laser printer with networking, should consider the Brother™ HL-L8250cdn. It boasts color and black print speeds of up to 30ppm, a 250-sheet capacity paper tray and 50-sheet capacity multi-purpose tray, plus the ability to expand to an 800-sheet total capacity with an optional 500-sheet add-on tray♦. It's an ideal choice for a small workgroup in a small or medium-sized business that needs a dedicated color printer to produce high-impact color output. High-yield replacement toner cartridges can print twice as many pages as standard yield cartridges to help reduce costs†, and Ethernet and USB interfaces provide flexible installation options for multi-user business environments.
