

Color Inkjet Multifunction Printer

RICOH IJM C180F

Dependable and affordable, the RICOH IJM C180F is the ideal all-in-one printer for the professional home office.

Working from home shouldn't mean your team has to compromise on technology. With the RICOH IJM C180F color inkjet multifunction printer, they won't have to. Give them the same high-quality and convenient A4 printing, copying, scanning and faxing capabilities at home as you would find in the office.

The IJM C180F is compact and affordable, making it the perfect fit for the professional home office. With its touch screen controls, it boasts simple usability and extensive functionality — all designed to address work from home needs. Support is seconds away via the RICOH Support Station app, keeping your staff and your business up and running (app available via Apple and Google stores).

WiFi comes standard, which enables easy connectivity to mobile devices for smart printing. The system also has built-in Ethernet and USB for maximum flexibility.

Choose the IJM C180F and your team will:

- Be up and running in no time with simple setup
- Produce documents with vibrant color and solid black text for the most professional look
- Benefit from high-yield, all-in-one print cartridges that are clean and easy to replace
- Spend less time refilling the paper tray with a robust 250-sheet capacity
- Speed through tasks and get their documents faster with print speeds up to 22-ppm in B&W and 18-ppm in color

The RICOH IJM C180F offers first-class multifunction quality, convenience and color, and a straightforward user experience, while minimizing energy use and ink costs – making it the fitting choice for the modern, at-home office.
